Egyptian General Is Host at Dinner

By Selwa Roosevelt

"Not only did we make many, many friends, but we felt as if we were at home," said Maj. Gen. Mohammed Ibrahim, the Chief of Staff of the Egyptian Army, on his return yesterday from a three-weeks tour of United States military installations.

The general, who has been here as the guest of the Department of Defense, gave a dinner last night as a token of appreciation for the many courtesies extended him during his stay here.

The black tie affair for some 100 guests took place in the Terrace Banquet Room of the Shoreham Hotel. Receiving with the general was Gen. Mustafa Yusef, who accompanied him on the trip, and the Egyptian Military Attache, Brig. Gen. Abbas El-Shanf and his exotic brunette wife.
